About the Speakers

Victoria Richards, RDH, BS

Victoria has over 25 years of experience in clinical dental hygiene in private practice with an emphasis on the incorporation of molecular testing in non-surgical periodontal treatment therapies. She received her AS from Meherry Medical College in Nashville, TN and completed her BSDH in 2004 from East Tennessee State University. Victoria has held offices on the local and state level of the dental hygiene professional organization including 2006-07 President of the Tennessee Dental Hygienists' Association and is currently serving as District VI Trustee on the ADHA Board of Trustees. She has received numerous awards including the Nashville Area Dental Hygiene Society's 2001 Committee Service Award, and TDHA's 2007 Dental Hygienist of the Year Award. Victoria is a published author and has a strong interest in the microscopic aspect of periodontal disease.

Carol Jahn, RDH, MS

Carol has been a member of ADHA for 26 years and has served as ADHA Delegate to the International Federation of Dental Hygiene and as Treasurer to the ADHA Board of Trustees. Locally, Carol has been past president to both her state Dental Hygienists' Association and her local component. Carol received her BS in dental hygiene from the University of Iowa and her MS in Continuing Education and Training from the University of St. Francis. After 14 years of clinical practice, Carol has been employed by Corporate/Water Pik, Inc. for the last 12 years and is currently the Manager of Professional Education and Communications.

Carol is a nationally recognized speaker, and has provided more than 200 courses in the US, Canada, Europe, and Asia. She is an established author with more than 60 published papers and a contributor to six textbooks including Clinical Periodontology, 10th ed., and Clinical Practice of the Dental Hygienist, 9th ed.
